

Please do not lessen the current standards. I have been able to spend more quality time with my family since I have not had to deal with answering the phone what seemed like every 5 minutes. I can also come home and not have my answering machine with 20 messages on it that I have to go through to get to my actual messages.